Badly Beaten by the University of Virginia.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., October 1.—(Special.)—The foot-ball eleven of the lirginia Polytechnic Institute, at Blacks ourg was defeated by the University of irginia team on the athletic ground f the University this afternoon by the arge score of 1 to 0, in two 20-minute large score of 61 to 0, in two 20-minute halves. The game was witnessed by the largest crowd of the season. A close and interesting contest was expected, from the fact that Blacksburg kept the North-Carolinians from scoring in Danville on Saturday last. To-day's game was looked upon as a test of strength between the Virginians and the Tarheels. The result of the game is highly satisfactory, and the student body is elated over the splendid showing made, and the marked improvement in the team's work. At no provement in the team's work. THE HIGH SCHOOL WINS.

The Boys Bent the Church-Hill Lads in an Exciting Game, doin, 10; Andover, 0.

A hotly contested game of foot-ball was played at West-End Park yesterday afternoon between the East-End Athletic Club, of Church Hill, and the Richmond High-School team. The game was interesting from start to finish, and althought was soon evident that the Church-Hill boys were outclassed, the boys of the East End played plucky ball.

The features of the game were the good playing of Jones, Schoenault, Anderson, and Wood, of the High School, and the tackling of Taiman, Hawkins, and Garrison, of Church Hill. The line-up was as follows:

STREET IMPROVEMENTS ORDERED The Committee Recommends Sewer Construction.

The Council Committee on Streets held a special meeting in Room No, 5 of the City Hall yesterday afternoon. Those in attendance were Sub-Chairman Bloomberg and Messrs, John J. and John M. King, J. T. Mountcastle, Gilbert K. Pollock, E. M. Foster, and W. T.

Woody.

The object of the session was to consider allegations regarding the construction of sewers in different sections of the city. A great many property-owners interested in this work were present, and were heard touching these matters. The committee rejected the proposition to build a culvert in St. Peter street, and it agreed to visit Judah street to-moreov afternoon, where it is proposed to

The communication stated that Mr. Selden, superintendent of the railway company, would appear before the committee in regard to this matter. Mr. Policek moved that the committee direct the company to comply with the city ordinance, which required it to give such a schedule as the Street Committee directed.

Mr. J. M. Fourqurean and other representatives of the Northside Railway Company appeared before the Commit-tee and asked that action be deferred until the next regular meeting of the committee, on the 15th. On motion of Mr. Foster this was agreed to.
Curbing and guttering were ordered at a number of points in Marshall Ward, on motion of Mr. Woody. Hon. John E. Massey, Superintendent

An entertainment for this winter was discussed, but no action taken.

A pleasant incident connected with the work of the ladies was related: Several years ago a lady from Tennessee wrote, inquiring about her husband, who died here in a hospital during the war. The invaluable register of the association was consulted, his name found, and grave identified. This identification brought the lady a fortune, to which her husband was heir. Prior to this time she made her living by the needle.
